Dingucha case: Bail denied to agents in Ahmedabad

AHMEDABAD: A city sessions court on Tuesday refused regular bail to three agents who have been arrested in connection with the deaths of four members of a family from Dingucha village, who froze to death while illegally crossing the US-Canada border in January last year. Additional sessions Judge Hemang Trivedi rejected all the contentions raised by the three agents - Yogesh Patel, Bhavesh Patel and Dashrath Chaudhary and denied them bail saying the involvement was seen, prima facie, in a serious offence and that the investigation is at a nascent stage. The three were arrested by the detection of crime branch (DCB) last month, and booked on charges of cheating, culpable homicide not amounting to murder, slavery and criminal conspiracy for human smuggling. The trio claimed innocence saying the victims from Dingucha - Jagdish Patel (39) wife Vaishali (37), daughter Vihangi (11) and son Dharmik (3) - died on the US-Canada border because they did not have adequate warm clothes, and the accused had nothing to do with this. They stated they cannot be held responsible for an incident that took place on the US-Canada border. They also argued the victims had gone to Canada on valid visas, and the crime began from Canada when they were walking to the US illegally, and the applicants had no role to play in this development. Moreover, they contended that the incident took place on the US-Canada border and the Ahmedabad city sessions court has no jurisdiction over it. The deaths happened a year ago and the FIR has been filed now with no explanation for the delay. CID (Crim) has already filed an FIR with regard to human smuggling charges. Public prosecutor Sudhir Brahmabhatt vehemently opposed the bail pleas, drawing the court's attention to statements of witnesses recorded under provisions of Section 164 of the Criminal Procedure Code. He asserted the accused played an active role in human smuggling and the investigation is still underway. After hearing the arguments, the court said it would not use its discretion to grant bail and noted that the applicants are accused of conspiring with three others - Fenil Patel, Bittu Paji and Steve Shand - to secure visas of countries bordering the US.

7.848cr as 'expenditure' in revised SMC budget

Surat: In the revised budget presented by the standing committee on Tuesday, the capital expenditure was increased by Rs 191 crore from the earlier budget proposed by the municipal commissioner. Earlier, Rs 3,519 was proposed as capital expenditure, which was higher than Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation. Adding Rs 191 crore the standing committee approved Rs 3,710 crore for capital expenditure in the next financial year. The total capital and revenue expenditure of Rs 7,707 that was proposed by city municipal commissioner Shalini Agarwal, was revised to Rs 7,848 by the standing committee with an increase of Rs 141 crore. Standing committee chairman Paresh Patel presented the budget and announced reducing total taxes and charges by Rs 6 crore. Earlier, the Surat Municipal Corporation (SMC) proposed a hike in taxes and charges by Rs 307 crore which has been reduced to Rs 301 crore now. Following the reduction in taxes and charges, the revenue income of Rs 4,540 crore was brought down to Rs 4,534 crore. Standing committee also increased capital income by Rs 138 crore from Rs 2,976 crore to Rs 3,114 crore. Revenue expenditure has also been reduced by Rs 50 crore. Total 18 urban health centres will be included in the National Quality Assurance Standard for better service to citizens. SMC will start two vans for care of senior citizens at a cost of Rs 25 lakh and later, another similar van will be added to each of the nine city zones," said Patel.

SMC will start a centralized education cell for integration of education services and better management. AI-based attendance and monitoring of students through mobile app will also be provided. SMC will also develop one school in each zone under Cycle to School project. "As part of project students will be given a cycle," Patel added.

Gujarat is full of tourism diversity, says CM Bhupendra Patel

AHMEDABAD: Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel kick started the first meeting of the G-20 Presidency, which is being hosted by India, from Kutch. He said that collective workings of the TWG meeting will give new direction and energy to the tourism sector.

An important place in the map of the world.

Referring to the five important priorities of the Tourism Working Group, the chief minister said that one of the five priorities is green tourism. The Smritivan memorial built to commemorate the devastating earthquake in Kutch is an example of green tourism. Fifty check dams and planting of more than three lakh plants in this memorial forest have given a new direction to green tourism.

Gujarat is a tourism friendly state full of tourism diversity. Gandhi Circuit, Buddhist Circuit and Vivekananda Circuit are also being developed in the state for the development of tourism added CM.

Cabinet Minister Parshottam Rupala said that, Kutch has a rich geographical diversity including desert, sea and mountains and it is a matter of pride and good fortune for us to host the G20 in Kutch which is a hub of tourism. The G-20 chairmanship will further accelerate the journey towards building a holistic, inclusive and prosperous India. Talking about tourism opportunities in India, he added that India's cultural center of attraction for tourists from all over the world. The Prime Minister has given the desert of Kutch an important place in the map of the world.

Fire breaks out at Nandesari chemical plant

Vadodra: A fire broke out in the chemical plant of Deepak Nitrite Ltd at Nandesari-GIDC on Monday night. Heavy smoke billowed from the flames that were spotted near the gate of the plant. However, no person was injured in the incident. This is the second instance in the last nine months that a fire has broken out in the company's plant at Nandesari. The firm makes organic, inorganic, fine and specialty chemicals. It has its manufacturing units in Vadodra and in Dahej in Gujarat. Deepak Nitrite in a statement said: "A minor fire occurred in the open space area of the Nandesari plant on the night of February 6. The fire was completely doused within 20 to 25 minutes of the incident. There has been no injury to any person and the plant operations continue to remain smooth."

Two decades ago, the earthquake in Kutch killed many people and destroyed thousands of houses. But the state turned the calamity into an opportunity. Kutch has now recovered and is marching on the path of development.

Rann utsav, which was started by the then chief minister and now Prime Minister Narendra Modi after seeing the immense potential of tourism along with industrial development in Kutch, has today become a

Suraj Kaliya gang members booked under Gujarat Control of Terrorism and Organised Crime

SURAT: Police have booked members of Suraj Kaliya gang under the Gujarat Control of Terrorism and Organised Crime (GUJCTOC) Act for their alleged involvement in a series of crimes. Their involvement was found in 44 criminal cases over the past eight years.

Police arrested Kuldip Thakur, Satish Yadav and Ankit alias Bawa Rajput on Sunday. Gang leader Suraj Kaliya alias Suraj Saroj and his close aide Raj Pandya are already in jail.

Police found the involvement of Kaliya and his gang members in a case of attack, kidnapping, threatening, theft, loot and Arms Act. The accused have been involved in extortion activities as well but no complaint has been filed yet.

"Kaliya wanted to establish his image as a gangster. He chopped off a man's finger and then roamed around in Pandesara with the victim on his motorcycle," said a police officer. Through such attempts, he wanted to terrorise other criminals and residents in the area. "Kaliya and his associates were arrested many times but they continued their criminal activities after coming out of the jail. The accused came in each other's contact while committing various crimes in the area and formed a gang," said police. The gang members initially started stealing and later started attacking people for loot and extortion.
