How will police act against those attacking CNCD teams, HC asks

Ahmedabad: The Gujarat high court on Wednesday directed the city police commissioner to file an affidavit and state what action does the police department plan against cattle owners who attack civic body officials in the presence of policemen.

The bench of Justice A J Shastri and Justice H M Prachhask said videos show government officials being beaten like animals and that too in the presence of the police and added that this cannot be tolerated in any circumstances. On the assault on Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (AMC) officials, the bench said, "This would not be a good message to society and it would demoralize the officials who go to implement the court order." It sought a reply in 24 hours, stating that the department will provide adequate police force to all officers who go to enforce the law and court order by removing stray cattle from public streets. The court sought to know what action has been taken against the "wrongdoers" with a message would be sent to the public at large and people would not feel safe if government officials are beaten in the presence of police.

The court appreciated the work done by AMC officials in the past week to remove cattle from city roads. "We appreciate the work that has been commenced and it would be a good idea to bring few instances for which stringent measures are yet to be taken. The machinery is activated, no doubt about it."

Five members appointed to state waqf board

Ahmedabad: The state government has appointed five members to the Gujarat State Waqf Board through a notification dated November 7. As there is no woman Muslim MP from the state, Shah Jahanabhai has been appointed in this category, the notification said. Imrat Khedawala has been appointed in the Muslim member of legislative assembly category. In the professionals category, the government appointed Dr. Mohsin Lokhandwala and Jishan Navki as recognized. The Shia scholar and Asaf Kar Salot as a recognized Sunni scholar, the notification said.

HC rebukes ACS home, asks why order was not followed

Ahmedabad: The Gujarat high court on Thursday came down heavily on the additional chief secretary, home, M. K. Puri, for his "audacity" in not following the court order and asked him to explain why he skipped the meeting with the FSL director and the DGP as directed by the HC.

According to complainant's advocate Vishrut Jani, the case involves allegations of forging a power of attorney in a land fraud case in Chandkheda.

The FSL took more than three years to verify the signatures on the documents in question. To resolve the issue, the HC ordered a meeting last month, but the ACS (Home) did not attend it. The court ordered the meeting to expedite FSL analysis and reports by filling up vacant posts so that investigations are completed early. There are cases in which parties have waited for FSL reports for five years.

Justice Sandeep Bhatt was annoyed with the secretary's conduct and questioned whether he was above the law. If senior officers are not interested in resolving the issue and in complying with the court orders, the court will pass strictures against them, and the courts should stop passing orders, he said.

While seeking the secretary's explanation for not attending the meeting, the HC said that verification of signatures takes five years. The Gujarat high court on Thursday came down heavily on the additional chief secretary, home, M. K. Puri, for his "audacity" in not following the court order and asked him to explain why he skipped the meeting with the FSL director and the DGP as directed by the HC.

AERA warns airports against arbitrary charges on charters

AHMEDABAD: The Airports Economic Regulatory Authority (AERA) recently warned airport operators against imposing non-aeronautical charges in violation of provisions of the AERA Act 2008.

The warning notice was issued soon after Adani Group increased charges levied on charter flights at Ahmedabad airport during the ongoing ICC World Cup. Sources said these arbitrary charges were levied at the Adani-run airports in Ahmedabad, Lucknow and Jaipur, under the heads of 'decongestion charges' and 'non-aero ancillary charge per passenger'. The issue has been a grave concern for charter users, operators and aggregators. "It has been reported by stakeholders that some airport operators are levying charges for non-aeronautical services (Elite Meet and Greet Service), which are otherwise optional for charter/aircraft operators and making them a prerequisite for availing of aeronautical services. Making such non-aeronautical charges mandatory to avail of aeronautical services amounts to altering aeronautical charges, thus violating provisions of the AERA Act, 2008," it has been notified.

Section 2(a) of the AERA Act, 2008, explicitly defines aeronautical services and does not entail availing of any non-aeronautical service (viz, Elite Meet and Greet Service) as a mandatory prerequisite for aeronautical services (viz, operating the aircraft charter at the airport).
